“Let’s Talk BA” set for January 18th

The first “Let’s Talk BA” forum of 2007 will be held Thursday, January 18th at Central on Main, 210 N. Main Street, starting at 7 p.m. The meeting is open to all citizens and will focus on issues affecting all wards of the city.

City councilors and leaders will be available to meet constituents and answer questions about their city government and projects taking place throughout Broken Arrow.

Forms will be distributed at the start of the session for citizens to fill out and rate the City in several areas, as well as list their questions and concerns.

A link has been featured on the Home Page of the City’s web site (www.brokenarrowok.gov) that gives citizens a “direct line” to City officials. The “Let’s Talk, BA” e-mail link has generated a steady stream of inquiries since it was created.

Filing for Council Posts Opens February 5th

Filing for the three Broken Arrow City Council seats on the April 3rd ballot will begin in early February.

Interested candidates may file at the Tulsa County Election Board, 555 N. Denver, in Tulsa from 8 a.m. Monday, Feb. 5th through 5 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 7th.

Council seats on the ballot will be those from Wards 3 and 4, as well as the At-Large seat. Tom Chatterton, Judi Myers and Wade McCaleb currently hold those seats.

Candidates must have been a registered voter in that ward for at least six months prior to filing for the position. The At-Large candidate may live anywhere in the city limits, but must have been a registered voter here for at least six months prior to filing.

For a detailed map showing all of the City's wards, go to the City website at www.brokenarrowok.gov, then to the "citizens" section of the site, government and "running for election."

New Classes at Community Center

The start of the New Year means the beginning of new classes at the Central Park Community Center.

The Community Center will offer classes in Team USA Cheer and Self Defense starting Jan. 26th. Registration at the Center will continue through Feb. 3rd.

TaeKwonDo, Tiny Tigers and morning women's volleyball leagues are already underway on Wednesdays from 9 a.m. to noon. Registration is still open.

'One Toe in the Grave' Comes to BACP Stage February 9th

The Broken Arrow Community Playhouse will present a Jack Sharkey comedy, "One Toe in the Grave," starting Feb. 9th at the BACP Theatre in The Main Place, 1800 S. Main.

Performances will be held Feb. 9, 10, 15, 16 and 17th, all starting at 8 p.m. There will be a Sunday matinee Feb. 18th at 2 p.m.

Charles Mutch is directing the production – his debut as a director for the BACP. "One Toe in the Grave" is a fun comedy of errors about an aspiring executive who creates a fictional wife with an incurable illness to facilitate his climb to the top of the corporate ladder.

Tickets are $13 for adults, $10 for senior citizens, $9 for students and $6 for children 12 and under. For tickets or more information, call the BACP offices at 258-0077, or visit their website at www.bacptheatre.com.
